Mobile Outreach Services Team (MOST)

Things appear brighter when troubles and worries are dealt with.

MOST is a school-based Mobile Outreach Service Team. It provides assessments, prevention and intervention services to promote learning and positive social behaviors.

All MOST staff are all Masters-level specialists who serve 5 school districts, including the Auburn Enlarged City School District.

The US Department of Education is funding a 3-year project (10/05-10/08) to provide MOST services in Auburn's Elementary schools. MOST Elementary Project staff will work with students in Kindergarten through 5th grade, who are experiencing challenges negotiating through important developmental tasks, psychosocial events, or would benefit from social and personal skill development.

MOST services will be provided only upon parental consent. Participation is voluntary. All services are confidential.

Q & A:

Who is eligible for the MOST program?

Students who attend Auburn Enlarged City School District Elementary Schools: Herman, Seward, Owasco, Casey Park and Genesee.

Why would someone request MOST services?

MOST assessment and therapy services (Cognitive Behavioral and/or Play Therapy) are designed to address many issues that might confront a young student such as: anger management difficulties, behavior/conduct problems, depression, anxiety, alcohol and/or drug concerns, feelings of isolation or social difficulties, excessive shyness, serious physical fighting with peers or family, chronic school absences, feelings of worthlessness or hopelessness, or sudden changes in personality.

How much does this service cost?

All MOST services are free, including the assessment and counseling services provided by MOST staff.

What should I do if I'm interested in this service for my child?

See your Elementary school Principal, Psychologist, or Social Worker. For further information on the program, you can contact MOST Program Supervisor, Robin Kincaid at 282-0005, ext. 16.

There is someone to talk to in the MOST Program.

Partnership For Results...

... is a comprehensive, community-wide collaboration dedicated to fostering the healthy development of children from infancy through secondary school.

It involves public education, mental health, human services, health and local law enforcement agencies that will act in close consultation with a Community Advisory Board comprised of parents, students and community-based organizations.
